What does the presentation consist of?

Talks are customized to fit the needs of each school. She can accommodate large group assemblies or smaller grade level presentations. Larger schools typically group students into primary and intermediate grades. Each assembly is fun and interactive.

K-2: Approximately 30-40 minutes.

3-6: Approximately 45 minute presentation with time for Q and A's. If desired, Dawn can include 15 minutes at the end to discuss how a book is made and talk about her publishing experience.

What do you need for each presentation?

The only things needed are an electrical outlet, 2 tables, and microphone.

How are books purchased?

Dawn will provide the school with a flyer/order form 2 weeks prior to the visit. She will bring books and sign them for those who pre-ordered. Those who wish to purchase books can also do so after the presentation.

What do students or teachers need to prepare?

A curriculum guide is available for Earth Remembers When, although teachers do not need to prepare anything. Older students should prepare questions they would like to ask the author.

Testimonials for Dawn's Presentations

"The children at Burcham School enjoyed Dawn's presentation. She was able to gear each program for all grade levels. All children were interested and asked great questions. Children with special needs were engaged and interested. The teachers in the audience enjoyed her presentation. I highly recommend Dawn for an author's presentation." -Mel, Librarian

"I am so delighted that Dawn came to my class to present her book "Earth Remembers When." She shared valuable information about the earth. She was engaging, energetic, and interacted with all students by asking them questions and answering theirs as well. Her book prompted such meaningful discussion, and we all can't wait to see what she writes next!" -Tiffany, Teacher

"This month the Del Paso campus had the special privilege of have Author Dawn Wynne visit and share her book "I Remember When..." during an assembly. The students enjoyed her hands-on presentation and were fascinated by the artifacts she shared. Dawn's gentle demeanor and captivating stories kept the students at the edge of their seats and curious to know more. It was a great treat having Dawn visit Westlake Charter and enlighten our students on some of the cherished tools from the past." -Desyrae, Curriculum & Assessment Coordinator

"We so enjoyed having Dawn Wynne come to our school and speak to our students about her book and remembering when.... She was so enthusiastic and positive and had a lot to share about old fashioned communication and the way things used to be. Thank-you Dawn for sharing your talents with us!" -Jenn, Principal Alamo School

"I heard from many teachers who attended numerous authors' visits that yours was the best they've seen. More importantly, the kids truly enjoyed it too!" -California School PTA-California School PTA
